U.VA. LIBRARY
DECLARATION OF POSSIBILITY

We are and stand for the possibility that this library is the intellectual crossroads where students and faculty, research and teaching, tradition and innovation, people and resources, individuals and communities, the world and Charlottesville … all intersect and engage.

We are energy, motion, rigor, and risk. We are physical and virtual space for a diversity of people, disciplines, and viewpoints. A place for intentional discoveries and unexpected breakthroughs. A place of infinite choices, goings and comings, and new pathways to new destinations.

January 2011